

The British Computer Society
ABERDEEN BRANCH
YPG Meeting

You Tube
James Provan

and

An Introduction to the YPG

Serhiy Kovela

Tuesday 20th November 2007, 18:30 to 19:30
Refreshments available from 18:00 in room C42

Lecture Theatre A23,
The Robert Gordon University,
St. Andrew's Street,
Aberdeen

James is a talented film maker that has made a name for himself publishing on You Tube. His professional looking creations have caught the eye of the U.K. media and his ideas can be seen copied on television. Find out how these videos were made and the impact they have had.

Serhiy is a member of the BCS Young Professionals Executive Committee and a Senior Lecturer at Kingston University. He will outline the benefits of the YPG and will be available to advise those wishing to promote an active YPG in the Aberdeen area.

Further Information:

Michael Morgan at warrensoftware@aol.com

BCS branch website: <http://aberdeen.bcs.org/>